
Title: Code of Conduct M

Author: Matsu

Mage's Code of Conduct.

All mages in
are expected to follow certain guidelines. The following should be applied when reffering
to Elder ranks.

Code:#I

All mages, despite rank, are obliged to uphold their guild in a proffesional manner.

Exp: a lost player
needs directions. Offer him a gate or recall.

Code:#II

Mages of Elder rank
must be respectful to the needs and
thoughts of the underlings. Exp: a Newbie seeks
council, if you have time don't deny, it
makes them think lesser of you. If you are busy, try to make time.

Code:#III

There is no descrimination of any kind, rank or position.

Exp: a Grandmaster should never tell a Journeyman he is one because he is weak, it is just not true.

Code:#IV

Fellow mages of the same guild should be considered your brothers and sisters.

Exp: If Jane says
hello to John, John
should greet her with the same respet she gave to him.

Code:#V

Mages of lower merit should address Mages of higher merit with respect, they will also get respect returned.

Exp;a Grandmaster greets a Master nicely, the Master is expected to reply in a similar manner. This applies for higher ranks of other departments as well.

Code:#VI

Even a Journeyman has the right to be heard. Exp: A Journeyman's opinion is just as important as the Guildmaster's.

Code:#VII
Any mage may participate on Guild hunts no matter what merit, unless it is private. Exp: A Master can participate on a hunt created by a Grandmaster provided it is a guild hunt and not a friends hunt.

Code:#VIII

Elder ranked Mages must heed the word of the Senate. Exp: Senators make a rule, all must abide by it

Code:#IX
Any racist, ethnic or demeaning slander or harrassment of any kind will result in punishment decided by the Senators. Exp: Sandra is being sexually harrassed by Martin, she has the right to address the the Senate or her Elder ranks for resolve.

Code:#X

We are all brothers and sisters.

We are a family and should treat eachother with mutual and good mannered respect.

A Mage's words are as powerful as his strongest spell. They can damage others or heal and support.

Choose your words
carefully and gain the respect and recognition of all your peers. That is the higher power of being a Classy mage.

On this oath you are sworn in by blood and soul to uphold the Honor, Integrity, and Power.

I (Name) do
declare my loyalty to all members of (Guild Name) and in doing so,
willingly become a member of this family.
I swear to respect my
brothers and sisters,
and uphold a respectful Honor that I share with everyone.

As a mage you are expected to be smart
and trustworthy, and can expect that in return.

Congratulations and welcome to the High
Class Mage World.
RolePlaying

There are many different Kinds of Mage Types and personalities. You should choose one that suits
you. Here are some examples...

Old Mage: Crazy but witty, the Old Mage is a highly intelligent madman. Usually is driven by Boose and a Perverse nature.

Cooky mage: This Mage
tends to be the funny
guy. He can hold a respective view by others, but is generally known for his zany antics.

Dark Mage: This Mage is usually cold and stuck up. He respects his brothers but don't expect him/her to be funny or nice.

Famed Mage: This Mage thinks the world revolves around him/her. They also think the world loves them and that they are beautiful and perfect.

There are many different types not described above. In any case you should have your own personality, but be as unique as possible. Don't fall into the same stereo type as most mages out there who act "Plain" and are boring. The most unique mages are always the most popular!

Good luck, not that you will need it!
